

Lex Veech, Guest & Community Relations Manager

Mr. Veech began his professional career in the Florida citrus industry, followed by investment banking and real estate development.

He began his career with Orange County in 1999, serving as the Convention Center's Community Relations Liaison. In September 2002, Lex served as the Public Affairs Coordinator for Orange County Mayor, Richard T. Crotty. In 2009 he was appointed to the position of Guest and Community Relations Manager at the Convention Center.

A native of Louisville, Kentucky, he relocated to Orange County, Florida in 1965.

Lex graduated from Lakeview High School, in Winter Garden and received his Associate of Arts Degree from Valencia Community College, before attending Florida State University and Rollins College. He served in the United States Army Reserves from 1970-1976.